

The 60th Independence Day of India

Consul General reading the President's address.

The 60th Independence Day of India was marked in Sydney with a Flag-Hoisting Ceremony at 9 AM this morning at the Residence of Mr. Sujan R. Chinoy, Consul General of India. The solemn ceremony was attended by a large number of people representing the Indian community, persons of Indian origin, ethnic media and friends of India, from a diverse cross-section of society. The Consul General of India hoisted the Tricolour and read to the gathering the President's address to the Nation. In his remarks thereafter, the Consul General lauded the contribution of the Indian community in promoting cultural, business and other ties between India and Australia. He also urged all those present to give deep thought to the President's message and to work together to promote economic development, regional and global peace, harmony and prosperity. The ceremony was followed by a Reception.

Text and pictures: - Courtesy - Consulate General of India, Sydney